SECTION 1 - INTRODUCTION

This handbook is designed to facilitate the Professional Growth System (PGS) process. This handbook does not take the place of the Master Contract between the Gridley Teachers Association (CTA/NEA) and the Gridley Unified School District. For further information, consult the Master Contract, Article 14: Evaluation Calendar/Procedures and Article 20: Peer Assistance and Review. The PGS process is utilized by both teaching and non-teaching certificated employees. These include the following: Teachers, Counselors, Speech Pathologist, School Psychologists, and School Nurses

GUSD Professional Growth System - Philosophy:

The philosophy of the Gridley Unified School District (GUSD) Professional Growth System is the belief that collaboration between the employee and the administrator will improve performance and stimulate professional growth. The process is designed to be meaningful and beneficial to the interest of students, employees and administrators. Evaluation of professional practices is interconnected with professional growth.

In recognition of employees' individual needs, the GUSD Professional Growth System is designed to support, encourage, and evaluate the success of employees who have received overall ratings of "satisfactory" on prior evaluations. It also provides non-tenured employees and employees on Assistance Plans with the additional guidance and support they deserve, as they progress in their professional development. In all cases, employees and evaluators collaborate to establish a Professional Growth Plan (PGP) that meets the individual needs of the employee.

Part of the PGS process includes observations and visitations. Observations and visitations allow administrators to observe the activities taking place in support of student progress. In addition, observations ensure that employees will have many opportunities to demonstrate their development toward aligning their practice with their professional standards.

Professional Growth System Overview

The following are the steps of GUSD's Professional Growth System. Please note, regardless of goal selected, employees are evaluated against all of their professional standards. All due dates are on the Timeline (page 5).

Step 1: Information Meeting: The evaluatee meets with their evaluator to learn about the Professional Growth System and to preview forms and due dates.

Step 2: Goal Setting Conference : The evaluatee and their evaluator meet to discuss and establish a professional development plan. Meeting to occur by the sixth week of school year starting.

Step 3: Classroom Visitations and Observations : Either the evaluator or evaluatee may initiate a classroom visitation or observation. Observations require a minimum of 30 minutes and a post-observation conference (Master Contract, Article14.6).

Step 4: End-of-Year Goal Reflection and Summative Evaluation: The evaluatee completes End-of-Year Goal and Reflection and gives it to the evaluator 10 working days before Summative Evaluation due date. The evaluator must prepare the Summative Evaluation prior to 30 days before the end of school. Evaluator and evaluatee meet to review the Summative Evaluation by May 1 for all certificated staff with the exception of Probationary 2 staff that will meet by February 15 consistent with the contract.

Copies of all PGS forms, without support documents, are to be sent to Certificated Human Resources by the evaluator. This includes:

- Observations
- Summative Evaluations
- Assistance Plans
- Memos terminating Assistance Plans

SECTION 2 - STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE TO THE GUSD PROFESSIONAL GROWTH SYSTEM

Step 1: Information Meeting

The Informational meeting is to be held prior to the first student day. Evaluator should meet with employees hired after the first day of school within two weeks of the date of hire.

The Informational Meeting is held with the evaluator and the evaluatee to familiarize the evaluatee with the Professional Growth System (PGS) and to establish timelines for the process. The evaluator provides orientation materials and all associated procedures and forms. Evaluator and evaluatee review together the Summative Evaluation Form and confirm that the evaluator will evaluate the employee on the selected goal as well as all professional standards. The evaluatee may ask questions, review the forms and begin to consider a professional growth goal for the year utilizing their professional standards (see Section III). This may be conducted as a group meeting.

The Master Contract (Article 14) states that all certificated employees must be evaluated as defined in Article 11 of the Education Code 44664 (a). This article reads:

Evaluation and assessment of the performance of each certificated employee shall be made on a continuing basis as follows:

1. At least once each school year for probationary personnel.
2. At least every other year for personnel with permanent status.
3. At least every five years for personnel with permanent status who have been employed at least 10 years with the school district, are highly qualified, if those personnel occupy positions that are required to be filled by a highly qualified professional by the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (20 U.S.C. Sec. 6301, et seq.), as defined in 20 U.S.C. Sec. 7801, and whose previous evaluation rated the employee as meeting or exceeding standards, if the evaluator and certificated employee being evaluated agree. The certificated employee or the evaluator may withdraw consent at any time.

The Request for Additional Information, the Observation, the Assistance Plan, and the Summative Evaluation may be used with “off-year” as well as “on-year” certificated employees.

TIPS FOR BEST PRACTICE

- Evaluator schedules approximately 30 minutes for the required overview meeting, either as a group or individually (see Timeline, page 5)
- Evaluator discusses the philosophy, describes the process, and reviews all forms with the evaluatee.
- Evaluator describes how the PGS process differentiates for non-permanent, permanent, and permanent teachers with Assistance Plans.
- Evaluator has a working knowledge of the professional standards and knows how to gather evidence for each standard.
- Evaluatee begins to draft professional growth goal in preparation for the goal setting conference.
- Evaluator and evaluatee review together the difference between classroom visitations and observations.

Step 2: Goal(s) Setting Conference

By the sixth week of school, the evaluator and evaluatee meet to discuss and establish a professional growth goal aligned with their professional standards that promotes professional growth, collaboration, and student learning.

Prior to this conference, the evaluatee writes a proposed professional development goal and plan. Employees with similar goals may meet with the evaluator as a cohort to facilitate teamwork and collaboration. During the conference, the evaluatee and evaluator discuss and mutually agree upon the plan. The Professional Growth Plan (PGP) must be finalized by the end of the sixth week.

Mutually agreed upon visitations, and/or observations are recorded in the visitations section. A Professional Growth Plan goal is all of these:

- A statement of desired end results for which an effort will be made.
- A statement wherein the focus is on what the improvement of one's practice will be, rather than on how that practice will be improved.
- A statement about professional practice that is
 - both relevant and possible,
 - broad enough to allow varied steps, options, and approaches, and
 - specific enough to measure both progress toward the goal and achievement of the goal by using information that can be seen, heard, felt, or noticed.

At the Goal Setting Conference, the evaluator and evaluatee schedule the Mid-Year Goal Reflection Conference date. Should circumstances change and the established goal needs to be modified, it is the responsibility of the evaluatee to notify the evaluator. At that time, a new/revised goal should be established. This is an appropriate time for the evaluator to express any performance concerns and address them in the context of the Professional Growth Plan. Please note, in addition to established goal, employees are evaluated against all of their professional standards.

TIPS FOR BEST PRACTICE

- Evaluatee prepares a draft Professional Growth Plan (PGP) to use in the conference. The intent of the PGS is to provide the employee with the opportunity to develop his/her own professional goal whenever possible. However, it is the responsibility of the evaluator to guide the evaluatee toward a goal that improves teaching practice and increases student achievement.
- The Goal Setting Conference is held by the end of the sixth week of school. The evaluator assists evaluatee in connecting teacher performance goal and student goals.

How to Complete the Professional Growth Plan (SAMPLE)

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH PLAN

Evaluatee: _____

Site: _____

Assignment: _____

School Year: _____

Note: Evaluatees are accountable for implementing each of their professional standards in their daily practice as reflected in the Summative Evaluation form.

GOALS:
Professional Growth Plan Goal(s): Participants enter a goal directly related to improving professional practice.
On which of your professional standards will you focus? Evaluatees identify a standard and the appropriate element(s) related to that goal.
How will your students benefit from your professional growth goal? Evaluatees describe how their professional growth goal will influence student achievement.
ACTION PLAN:
Steps: The evaluatee describes the things he/she will do to meet goal. Things may include but not limited to: implementing a teaching strategy; reading professional literature; collaboration with colleagues; workshops to attend; monitoring and assessing student progress; developing formative assessment tools; etc.	Timeline: The evaluatee establishes a timeline for all the steps he/she plans to take to meet his/her goal. Evaluatee and evaluator will use these dates to measure progress toward his/her goal.	Resources: The evaluatee specifies the materials, workshops, books, time, and collaborators that will be necessary to complete the Professional Growth Plan.
ASSESSMENT:
Identify at least two sources (data, student work sample, etc.) that you will use to demonstrate how your professional growth goal has benefited students. The evaluatee describes the measures he/she will use to determine how students will benefit from his/her professional growth. This might include administering pre and post tests, interviews, student work, data collection, etc.
Schedule proposed observation and visitation dates here: The evaluatee and evaluator may schedule dates for classroom visitations or observations in this box or identify the focus of the visitations.

COPY: Evaluator ; Personnel file

STEP 3: Visitations and Observations:

Visitations: The purpose of these visitations is to provide opportunities for the evaluatee and evaluator to reflect on the professional growth process. Evaluator makes frequent visitations related to the progress of evaluatee's Professional Growth Plan (PGP) and the employee's professional standards. Visitations may or may not include written or verbal feedback from the evaluator. Visitations will be conducted as needed at the discretion of the site administrator. The evaluatee may initiate a follow-up conversation, if desired.

Observations: Observations and visitations serve to allow administrators to observe the activities taking place in support of student achievement. In addition, observations and visitations ensure that employees will have many opportunities to demonstrate their development toward aligning their practice with their professional standards.

Evaluations will include at least two formal classroom/assignment observations of 30 minutes each with one completed on or before December 1 for temporary and probationary employees and December 15 for permanent staff. Permanent employees and evaluators may request an observation at any time. Assistance Plans require three observations prior to being written.

Observations require a minimum of 30 minutes and a post-observation conference (Master Contract, Article 14.6).

Either the evaluator or evaluatee may initiate a classroom visitation or observation. If an evaluator has concerns about any area of the employee's professional standards, the evaluator may request additional information. (See page 11, Evaluator's Request for Additional Information).

TIPS FOR BEST PRACTICE

- The best practice for professional support in the observation process includes: the pre-conference, the observation, a post-observation conference, and the written report of observation.
- If circumstances interrupt the scheduled appointments for classroom visitations or classroom observations, the party changing the appointment notifies the other at least one day in advance.
- Evaluator may provide some form of immediate, relevant feedback to the evaluatee after a classroom visitation. This does not require a formal conference and may include a short note or a brief conversation at a time conducive to reflection.

How to Complete the Observation

(This form is used for all observations.)

Evaluatee: _____ Site: _____ Assignment: _____ School Year: _____

PRE-CONFERENCE (Optional)

Date: _____ Time: _____

Anticipated Student Outcomes:

The evaluatee records the expected student outcomes of the lesson being observed.

Professional Standards (specify standards and elements):

The evaluatee records the area of their professional standards and elements evidenced in the observation.

OBSERVATION (Minimum of 30 minutes) Date: _____ Time: _____

Evaluatees are accountable for implementing each of the professional standards in their daily practice, including those not visible in an observation.

The evaluator may record his/her observations of the lesson in this box. The evaluator documents evidence of teaching practice, student behavior and performance. The boxes will expand to accommodate details.

It is appropriate to focus the observation on the professional standard(s) designated in the Pre-Conference section. This gives purpose to the observation and provides a comprehensive look at the standard. In addition, feedback and recommendations are manageable for the evaluatee.

POST-OBSERVATION CONFERENCE

Date: _____ Time: _____

This conference is held within ten days of the observation. It is an essential part of the professional growth process and should not be omitted.

Revisit Anticipated Student Outcomes:

The evaluator guides the evaluatee in conversations that link his/her professional growth to student outcomes.

Discussion of Observation and Alternate Sources of Data:

The evaluatee and evaluator discuss the observation and review other data/evidence brought to the conference by each of them. This may include, but is not limited to, student work samples, student surveys, records of student progress, lesson plans, reflections from peer collaboration, etc. The evaluator may also use the Request for Additional Information form to gather more data. This sampling of multiple sources provides additional information regarding the lesson observed.

Next steps:

Since professional growth is a continual process, the evaluatee and the evaluator determine the next steps in the evaluatee's development of his/her teaching practice based on this observation.

Using all evidence/data collected from the pre-conference, the observation and the post-conference, the evaluator completes the observation and returns it to the evaluatee within fifteen days of the observation.

Signing below indicates that the observation was discussed:

How to Complete the Evaluator Request for Additional Information:

This form may be used any time an evaluator has a concern regarding teacher performance in any of the professional standards. The intention of this component of the PGS process is to assure mutual understanding of any concerns well in advance of the End-of-Year Goal Reflection conference and Summative Evaluation.

Part I: To be completed by evaluator and shared with evaluatee during a meeting.

Step One: Evaluator identifies specific professional standards and element(s)

Refer to the complete list of standards in Section III. The evaluator may find concerns in more than one standard and/or element. In this case, the evaluator may want to consider using multiple copies of this form.

Step Two: Evaluator describes specific concern (what has or needs to be observed, samples of student work, data, etc.).

An evaluator may have a concern based on: (1) lack of evidence, (2) evidence that practice is contrary to the standard, and/or (3) frequency of teacher practice exemplifying the standard.

Step Three: Evaluator describes specific expectations to be met by employee to alleviate concerns described in step two (ex: timelines, observation opportunities, lesson plans, student work, etc.)

Evaluatee and evaluator sign in step 3 to confirm mutual understanding of the expectation. Refer to the complete professional standards in the appendix of this handbook for language to communicate expectations.

Evaluatee

Date

Evaluator

Date

Part II: To be completed by evaluatee.

After a mutually agreed upon period of time the evaluatee provides requested information as specified in step three.

Step Four: Summary of evaluator's assessment of employee's response and next steps.

Evaluator provides written remarks indicating whether or not the evaluatee has provided enough information to alleviate the concern identified in step one.

If the evaluator remains concerned, specific future steps such as an observation with a pre-conference, and/or Assistance Plan could occur. These are described in this section.

Assistance Plan attached: ☐ Yes ☐ No

The evaluator/evaluatee indicates in this section if there is an Assistance Plan attached.

Written Response: ☐ Yes ☐ No

The evaluatee/evaluator indicates in this section if there is a written response attached.

Step 4: End-of-Year Goal Reflection and Summative Evaluation

The evaluatee completes the End-of-Year Reflection independent of the evaluator and gives it to the evaluator two weeks before the Summative Evaluation Conference.

Prior to 30 days before the end of school, the evaluator prepares the Summative Evaluation. Using all data collected from classroom visitations, written reflections, the goal review conference, and other sources of data, the evaluator and evaluatee discuss progress toward completion of goal, the various evidence, and future goal setting.

The Summative Evaluation is reviewed and signed during this conference. When agreement cannot be reached, the evaluator maintains final responsibility for evaluation. The evaluatee may submit a written response to the evaluation. Any such response is attached to the Summative Evaluation prior to placement in the evaluatee's personnel file. If there are areas of concern, evaluatees are notified in the Summative Evaluation and an Assistance Plan (see page 21) may be developed with the evaluatee.

If the evaluatee receives an overall “unsatisfactory” performance evaluation (“does not meet” in four or more areas) or a “does not meet” rating in any of the professional standards areas, the evaluator prepares a written Assistance Plan. Evaluators may also use this opportunity to address any areas of concern regarding the evaluatee's performance.

TIPS FOR BEST PRACTICE

- Evaluator completes Summative Evaluation conferences no later than 30 days before the end of school.
- The evaluatee may bring multiple sources of evidence/data to the summative conference.
- The evaluator may bring notes from classroom visitations or observations that support the use of their professional standards in the evaluatee's daily practice. Evaluators may have some evidence/data of the use of these standards in order to determine whether or not an evaluatee meets each standard.
- The evaluator and evaluatee review the evidence/data each brings to the summative conference and discuss the evaluatee's progress toward completion of the goal and the implementation of their professional standards.
- The Summative Evaluation is finalized, signed and sent to Certificated Human Resources no later than one month before the last day of school.

How to Complete the End-of-Year Goal Reflection:

Professional-Growth-Plan Goal:

The evaluatee restates the professional goal(s) in the Professional Growth Plan (PGP). The goal is stated on all forms to reiterate the focus of the PGP. Participants may copy and paste the goal on all forms at the beginning of the process.

What progress have you made towards accomplishing your goal? Reference professional standards selected on Professional Growth Plan.

Using the steps and timeline sections of the PGP, assess the tasks completed to date and compare the progress with the timeline expectations. Reflect on the experience and enter the evaluation of progress in this box.

What data/evidence shows that your Professional Growth Plan has benefited student learning? Reference Assessment section from Professional Growth Plan.

Using the data/evidence noted in the assessment section of the Professional Growth, describe the results you have at this time.

How will your Professional Growth Plan influence your teaching and learning in the future?

These are your next steps. The evaluatee assesses how this professional growth experience will influence his/her future professional practices and learning. The evaluatee may consider whether this process motivates him/her to plan independent professional growth goals for next year using this same process.

This End-of-Year Reflection form was reviewed in a conference between evaluator and evaluatee.

Professional-Growth-Plan Goal or attach Assistance Plan: The evaluatee's professional growth goes in this section.	Professional Standards: The professional standards and element(s) that guided the Professional Growth Plan are listed in this section.
Professional Growth Plan Accomplishments
Evaluator's Comments: The evaluator assesses the evaluatee's Professional Growth Plan. This appraisal is based on evidence gathered by the evaluator and multiple sources of data presented by the evaluatee. The evaluator reviews the End-of-Year Reflection, prior to the Summative Evaluation Conference and makes comments in this section.

EACH CERTIFICATED EMPLOYEE HAS THEIR OWN SUMMATIVE EVALUATION FORM THAT REFLECTS THEIR PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS	Meets Standard	Progress Evident	Does Not Meet Standard
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Each set of standards requires the evaluator to determine if the employee has met this standard throughout their work for the year. Some standards will be observable. That means that the evaluator can go into the employee's work setting and actually see or hear these standards in practice. Other standards require closer scrutiny of supporting data, i.e. lesson plans, assessment data, review of individual education plans, etc. Evaluators need a working knowledge of the employee's professional standards to adequately assess the evaluatee in each area.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Evaluator's Comments: The evaluator writes comments regarding the teacher's use of the professional standards in daily practice. This assessment is based on evidence gathered by the evaluator and multiple sources of data presented by the evaluatee throughout the year. This data may be observed during classroom visitations and/or classroom observations; it does not have to be collected in portfolio fashion.

The evaluatee may attach a written response to the evaluation.

There are separate Summative Evaluation forms for each Certificated employee group (School Counselors, School Nurses, School Psychologists, Speech and Language Pathologists, Teachers).

Assistance Plans: Assistance Plans are written plans, with timelines, for whom remediation is recommended by their evaluator. Employees may also voluntarily request assistance. Employee Assistance Plans will not be required in instances of egregious behavior by employees or when notices of unprofessional conduct have been issued.

- All Assistance Plans must be preceded by three observations. In the case of an unscheduled observation, a pre-conference is not required.
- An evaluator may write an Assistance Plan for an evaluatee any time there is a concern with their performance, including those not “on-year.”
- Assigning an Assistance Plan does not automatically put one “on-year.”
- When does an Assistance Plan come into effect?
 - ✓ If the evaluator has an area of concern with the evaluatee’s performance, s/he may write an Assistance Plan, provided it is preceded by three observations.
 - ✓ If an “on-year” evaluatee “Does Not Meet” one or more standards, the evaluator must write an Assistance Plan. If any areas of the evaluatee’s Summative Evaluation are marked “Does Not Meet Standard”, a Performance Evaluation Addendum-Assistance Plan must be completed and attached to the Summative Evaluation.
- An Assistance Plan is terminated when an evaluatee successfully completes all the goals of the plan.
 - ✓ The evaluator completes three observations prior to terminating an assistance plan.
 - ✓ The evaluator terminates an Assistance Plan by indicating completion on the assistance plan form with signatures.
 - ✓ Evaluators will also provide a letter to the evaluatee indicating that they are returning to the traditional evaluation cycle. All Assistance Plans and termination of plans will be copied to personnel files.
- Overall Unsatisfactory: the evaluatee “Does Not Meet Standard” in four or more domains.

Assistance Plan Scenarios

- A. An evaluatee is in their “on-year” and an Assistance Plan is assigned. All contractually agreed upon Professional Growth System timelines must be met and components must be completed. If an “on-year” evaluatee’s Assistance Plan does not align with their already initiated Professional Growth Plan, the Assistance Plan becomes the guiding document. The evaluator may choose to terminate the Assistance Plan at the end of the year or continue it to the following school year.
- B. An evaluatee is in their “off-year” and an Assistance Plan is assigned. In this case, all contractually agreed upon Professional Growth System timelines need not be met and components need not be completed. The evaluator may choose to terminate the Assistance Plan when the goals have been met or continue it to the following school year.
- C. An evaluator may move an evaluatee on an Assistance Plan to “on-year” status, provided all steps of the contractually agreed upon Professional Growth System timelines are met and all components are completed.
- D. At the end of the school year, the evaluator determines whether or not the evaluatee remains on the Assistance Plan for the next school year. The evaluator terminates an Assistance Plan by indicating completion on the assistance plan form with signatures. All assistance plans and termination plans will be copied to personnel files. Remaining on an Assistance Plan does not require one to be “on-year.”

Developing As a Professional Educator

Revised July 1, 2023

Did you know?

- The California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTP) were adopted by the State in 1996, and are currently used as the basis for teacher preparation, professional development, and evaluation throughout California.
- GUSD did not currently have a rubric or guide by which the elements and standards of the CSTP are measured related to teacher performance.
- A joint committee of the Gridley Teachers Association (GTA) and the District used the CSTP to develop the attached rubric for standards-based teacher evaluation. This process was also done to ensure that nurses, counselors, speech and language pathologists, and school psychologists also had a relevant tool for professional growth specific to them.
- GTA and the District have worked collaboratively on the design of a standards-based evaluation system in the GUSD.

How Should I use this Rubric?

- Read through the six Standards. Pick out two elements that interest you from two separate standards or domains.
- Read the rubric for those Elements. Highlight where you think your performance level currently is.
- Set some professional growth goals, (i.e. where would I like to be on the rubric by end of evaluation period)
- Discuss your goals with your administrator as the focus for your professional development and evaluation process for the current year. Write those goals on your Professional Growth Plan.
- Evaluator and evalutee can utilize descriptors across the standards to engage in conversations leading to effective educational strategies.

SCHOOL

PSYCHOLOGISTS

STANDARDS & FORMS

National Association of School Psychologists Practice Model Domains

Domain 1: Data-Based Decision Making

School psychologists understand and utilize assessment methods for identifying strengths and needs; developing effective interventions, services, and programs; and measuring progress and outcomes within a multitiered system of supports. School psychologists use a problem-solving framework as the basis for all professional activities. School psychologists systematically collect data from multiple sources as a foundation for decision-making at the individual, group, and systems levels, and they consider ecological factors (e.g., classroom, family, and community characteristics) as a context for assessment and intervention.

Domain 2: Consultation and Collaboration

School psychologists understand varied models and strategies of consultation and collaboration applicable to individuals, families, groups, and systems, as well as methods to promote effective implementation of services. As part of a systematic and comprehensive process of effective decision making and problem solving that permeates all aspects of service delivery, school psychologists demonstrate skills to consult, collaborate, and communicate effectively with others.

Domain 3: Academic Interventions and Instructional Supports

School psychologists understand the biological, cultural, and social influences on academic skills; human learning, cognitive, and developmental processes; and evidence-based curricula and instructional strategies. School psychologists, in collaboration with others, use assessment and data collection methods to implement and evaluate services that support academic skill development in children.

Domain 4: Mental and Behavioral Health Services and Interventions

School psychologists understand the biological, cultural, developmental, and social influences on mental and behavioral health, behavioral and emotional impacts on learning, and evidence-based strategies to promote social-emotional functioning. School psychologists, in collaboration with others, design, implement, and evaluate services that promote resilience and positive behavior, support socialization and adaptive skills, and enhance mental and behavioral health.

Domain 5: School-Wide Practices to Promote Learning

School psychologists understand systems structures, organization, and theory; general and special education programming; implementation science; and evidence-based, school-wide practices that promote learning, positive behavior, and mental health. School psychologists, in collaboration with others, develop and implement practices and strategies to create and maintain safe, effective, and supportive learning environments for students and school staff.

Domain 6: Services to Promote Safe and Supportive Schools

School psychologists understand principles and research related to social-emotional well-being, resilience and risk factors in learning, mental and behavioral health, services in schools and communities to support multitiered prevention and health promotion, and evidence-based strategies for creating safe and supportive schools. School psychologists, in collaboration with others, promote preventive and responsive services that enhance learning, mental and behavioral health, and psychological and physical safety and implement effective crisis prevention, protection, mitigation, response, and recovery.

Domain 7: Family, School, and Community Collaboration

School psychologists understand principles and research related to family systems, strengths, needs, and cultures; evidence-based strategies to support positive family influences on children's learning and mental health; and strategies to develop collaboration between families and schools. School psychologists, in collaboration with others, design, implement, and evaluate services that respond to culture and context. They facilitate family and school partnerships and interactions with community agencies to enhance academic and social-behavioral outcomes for children.

Domain 8: Equitable Practices for Diverse Student Populations

School psychologists have knowledge of individual differences, abilities, disabilities, and other diverse characteristics and the impact they have on development and learning. They also understand principles and research related to diversity in children, families, schools, and communities, including factors related to child development, religion, culture and cultural identity, race, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, socioeconomic status, and other variables. School psychologists implement evidence-based strategies to enhance services in both general and special education and address potential influences related to diversity. School psychologists demonstrate skills to provide professional services that promote effective functioning for individuals, families, and schools with diverse characteristics, cultures, and backgrounds through an ecological lens across multiple contexts. School psychologists recognize that equitable practices for diverse student populations, respect for diversity in development and learning, and advocacy for social justice are foundational to effective service delivery. While equality ensures that all children have the same access to general and special educational opportunities, equity ensures that each student receives what they need to benefit from these opportunities.

Domain 9: Research and Evidence-Based Practice

School psychologists have knowledge of research design, statistics, measurement, and varied data collection and analysis techniques sufficient for understanding research, interpreting data, and evaluating programs in applied settings. As scientist practitioners, school psychologists evaluate and apply research as a foundation for service delivery and, in collaboration with others, use various techniques and technology resources for data collection, measurement, and analysis to support effective practices at the individual, group, and/or systems levels.

Domain 10: Legal, Ethical, and Professional Practice

School psychologists have knowledge of the history and foundations of school psychology; multiple service models and methods; ethical, legal, and professional standards; and other factors related to professional identity and effective practice as school psychologists. School psychologists provide services consistent with ethical, legal, and professional standards; engage in responsive ethical and professional decision-making; collaborate with other professionals; and apply professional work characteristics needed for effective practice as school psychologists, including effective interpersonal skills, responsibility, adaptability, initiative, dependability, technological competence, advocacy skills, respect for human diversity, and a commitment to social justice and equity.
